

American Negro Songs: 230 Folk Songs and Spirituals, Religious and Secular (Paperback)

By John W. Work

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From joyous gospel to deeply felt blues, this wonderful collection contains vintage songs sung and played through the years by black Americans at work, in church, and for pure entertainment. Included are spirituals, blues, work songs, and a variety of social and dance songs. This important volume was originally compiled in 1940 by Dr. John W. Work, the noted musicologist affiliated with Fisk University and the celebrated Fisk Jubilee Singers. In it, he discusses the origins and history of black American folk music, the influence of slavery and African cultures, and the lyric significance of such much-loved songs as Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, Steal Away to Jesus, Lord, I Want to Be a Christian, and John Henry. These informative notes lead up to the heart of the book: the complete words and music for 230 religious and secular songs, including Study War No More, Keep Me from Sinking Down, You May Bury Me in the East, Rock of Ages, Go Tell It on the Mountain, and many others. This is an indispensable treasury of music for singers, musicians and all...
