And he points out the equal mistakes of others. We try to predict history. Something unforeseen shoves the current off its immediate descent. To say that nothing has been learned since Marx is as if we said nothing was ever learned before Marx. To speak of Socialism as German or French or English, or anything else, as if limited in its origins, is to rob it of its indisputably universal genesis. VWhen you say Socialism can only come from the bottom or can only come from the top. When you say the bottom s no use. When you say the top s no use. When you exclude the so called intellectual by saying proletarian alone. When you exclude the so called proletarian by saying intellectual alone. When you make too much of culture or ignorance. You find Walling always saying: Let s see. Your inferences. Your party cries. Your propagandist hates and loves. He says: Let s see. You say: I dont want your dreams: give me facts. You say: I dont want your facts: give me dreams. You say: But Bebel says yes. You say: But Kropotkin says no. You say: But Shaw is a Fabian. You say: But Tom Mann is a revolutionary. As if shibboleths or names could stand in place of the truth. And Walling again says: Let s see. I notice that some people get mad at Walling s let s see. And I...
