Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Scheme for the Coalition of Parties: Humbly Submitted to the Publick If the scheme of that ingenious gentleman should exactly correspond with mine, much weight will be added to my proposal; but, if they should differ in a few particulars, the impartial and infallible publick may take their choice. I shall not here follow the example of our modern reformers, civil and ecclesiastical, in pulling down without rebuilding, complaining without redressing, and opposing without proposing; but shall offer a plain and simple scheme, which I am sure will be effectual, and hope will be unexceptionable to men of all parties, connexions, and denominations; as it cannot fail to promote all their interests, as well as that of the public.
