Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Man to His Mate It was perfect weather along the San Francisco waterfront, and Rainey reacted to the brisk touch of the trade-wind upon his cheek, the breeze tempering the sun, bringing with it a tang of the open sea and a hint of Oriental spices from the wharves. He whistled as he went, watching a lumber coaster outward bound. The dull thump of a heavy cane upon the timbered walk and the shuffle of uncertain feet warned him from blundering into a man tapping his way along the Embarcadero, a giant who halted abruptly and faced him, leaning on the heavy stick. Matey, asked the giant, could you put a blind man in the way of finding the sealer schooner Karluk? About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
