Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Letter From the Cocoa-Tree to the Country-Gentlemen Gentlemen, Engaged to you by every sentiment of affection and esteem; united with you in the fame political principles and ideas of the constitution; I need not profess my zeal for your interests and honour. I have always acted with you, and can now look back with pleasure on our past conduct. I find it steady and uniform, except in one instance, when we were first insensibly engaged, and afterwards as insensibly carried too far in support of the war in Germany. I make this acknowledgment, without apprehension of offending, as I know your opinions upon that subject. But a new and extraordinary crisis of affairs is coming forward, which will call upon us to maintain the integrity of our political principles and character. I am therefore desirous to lay before you such reasons, as, in my opinion, ought to influence our future conduct and engagements, with regard to the strange things that are passing here.
