With hallowed joy My heart doth cloy. Her heart t would bewitch To know me rich; For t is not want that love inspires, And after riches the maid aspires. Lucentio; Bianca, candidly, I m but a youth From Pisa s walls, to speak the truth, Who d fain instruct thee in the arts of Cupid. Bianca: Oh, now I see. How could I be so stupid? Lucentio: The man who s called Lucentio Is but my valet, Tranio. T is love for thee alone has brought me here. Be kind to me and bid me call thee Dear. Bianca: Hush, gentle sir, for Licio may catch on. He sniffs a rodent. We ll talk of this anon. Aloud. I fear I do not like thy Latin vile. To Lucentio I ll meet thee at two down by the stile, Where we our...
