PREFACE TO THE SECOND LONDON EDITION. Called upon by my Publisher to prepare, somewhat hurriedly, for a Second Edition of the present volume, I have endeavoured to avail myself (as far as the time would permit) of various corrections and alterations suggested to me by known and unknown friends, in the hope of rendering my book as worthy as possible of the indulgence with which it has been received. Unable in any other manner to acknowledge the numerous communications which have reached me on the subject of the principal Poem, I beg here to offer my thanks to the Writers, and more especially to the Critic who, signing himself Amicus, has nevertheless left me in doubt as to which of my old friends and most agreeable companions I have ungratefully forgotten in his person. Though I have not been able, at this moment, to follow all the hints I have received, I trust hereafter to prove that none of them have been thrown away. The present volume includes a reprint of a short poem, entitled A Voice from the Factories, which appeared in 1836, under the auspices of my good friend Mr. Murray, of Albemarle Street, who undertook to publish it without my name. To that anonymous edition a preface was appended in the form of an introductory letter addressed to Lord Ashley, which now, in its altered form, I have seen reason to omit; claiming permission only to retain, in the Dedication,...
