At St. Louis, St. Joseph, Mo., Cincinnati, Cleveland and Buffalo are smaller packing plants. 5. Live cattle are still shipped abroad, but two-thirds as many more are slaughtered and exported in refrigerator cars and ships. 6. Cheese and butter are made from the milk of the cow, and many cheese and butter factories are to be found in these states. 7. Tallow is made from the fat of beef and mut ton. The best qualities are used for candles, while other grades are used in making soaps and lubricants and in dressing leather. 8. Among other by-products of the beef are: hides, which are made into leather; hair, which is used in mortar; and the blood and-bones, which are made into fertilizers and put to other uses. VII. Hogs. 1. One-third of the hogs of the world are found in the United...
