Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This treatise is an apology of the book of Genesis and Moses. To the creation account, it advances the necessary mystical details that had not been revealed until now. In those details are provided substantial data that help to place the message related in the story into clearer perspective, in the sense that, they bring to the content, light, to make the foundation of the story both visible and appreciable. The words used by Moses to format the message, which Moses had meant to address especially to men living in our times, are accorded to their sound interpretations in perspective and context of their specific aims. And here, the Genesis account has been dissected and exposed, so that it needs not sound like a simply mysterious tale, limiting it to the ranks of a fable writer s fantastic work. This book, Decoding Moses: In the Genesis, has brought a firm footing to the philosophic element of the creation account; and the scientific component has found solid standing ground. In its three parts division, the book drives many points that qualify as information concerning man at various levels of his development. The Beginning Principles make points that can lead to understanding of self, in the sense that, they provide the necessary basics of details relating to man s essential being question: who am I? In the Intermediate Principles the primal source of man s very existence comes to view under marked clarity, so that man may be better able to search into his second essential question: where did I come from? Knowledge of each of these sets of principles brings vital utility to man s necessary evolution. In the...
