Engage the sympathies of those you know who love the Lord, and ask their prayers for the little Church in our regiment. And now once more I commend you to God. I give you 1st John iii. 1-3 as a Christmas box.--Ever your affectionate, M. M. H To the idea of being associated with Christ, partners with Him in His ministerial work, and after His departure Hisrepresentatives on earth, he returns again in his next letter: --, December 12, 18-18. My VERY DEAR, --. I have been thinking lately of the honour put upon us, in believers being represented as associated with Christ in the great work of glorifying God in the salvation of souls; as appears from two verses in John xvii., the 18th and the 22 As the Father sent Christ into the world to glorify Him before men, and to seek and save the lost, so has Christ sent His disciples into the world for a similar purpose; and now that the Lord and Master is no more ffi the world, they are His representatives upon earth: the head represented by His members. And in verse 22, the glory mentioned cannot be the glory which shall be revealed, as He says, I have given them. It must therefore be the glory of gathering in lost sinners; wherein especially Jesus was glorified, and the Father in Him, and in which glorious...
