Come, grandmother, sit down and tell a little story to my darling. When figure 4 has been obtained from the former, the mother may continue: Oh, what a nice chair for my little pet! And here is another for little sister. Come, sister (changing the form to figure 1), and have some dinner; come, the table is set. Figure 10 or 11 may be enlivened with words like these: From this well, papa gets water, when he is thirsty. Mamma gets water from it for her flowers or to wash her little pet. Or figure 12: Here comes the cow with her little calf, to drink water from the trough: they are so thirsty! How glad they are to get a drink! Now they have enough, and go away. And here comes John with two horses; he wants to let them drink,...
